

I was so happy when we started getting K-LOVE in our small town. Our town just has one radio station that plays country music and we need a christian station for our teenagers and others that love that station. I'm 53 years old and I love the station also. I sing some of those songs at church and many people are blessed, so please leave this station for us and our children. May God richly bless you for this. Thanks